

STARLIGHTERS THEATRE

"Of all the art forms, theatre is the most human because its alignment of purpose and mode of expression allow it to closely approximate daily life...As a mirror of the human condition, theatre provokes recognition and identification and inspires reflection. At its best, theatre permits us to transcend immediate reality and to acknowledge our kinship with the human family."

~ The American Alliance for Theatre & Education ~

Starlighters II believes in and supports the above philosophy. However, we cannot operate without the support of all of those who know the "magic" of theatre firsthand.
